THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD FOR IRELAND. KEADY WATERWORKS.

Provisional Order.

WHEREAS by "The Keady Waterworks Provisional Order, 1876," confirmed by "The Local Government Board (Ireland) Provisional Orders (Celestine, &c. Waterworks) Confirmation Act, 1876," the guardians of the poor of the Armagh Union, being the Rural Sanitary Authority of the rural sanitary district consisting of the Armagh Union, wherein the said town of Keady is situate, were empowered to put in force the provisions of "The Lands Clauses Acts," with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, in reference to a certain field, garden, and millpond situated in the townland of Crossedown, parish of Keady, barony of Armagh, and county of Armagh, containing about one statute acre of land, with wayleave for pipes through twenty perches, and so much of the water flowing through a certain mill race or stream flowing from Clay Lake as should be required for the purpose of providing a supply of water to the said town of Keady and to a certain adjoining district therein described:

And whereas the guardians of the poor of the Armagh Union, as such Rural Sanitary Authority as aforesaid, have presented a petition to the Local Government Board for Ireland, stating that the lands mentioned in the said Provisional

That the said John Rynd heard the said claims, but died before making any award thereon :

And whereas all notices and advertisements required by the several enactments in that behalf having been served and published, an inquiry has been held in the said district on behalf of the Local Government Board for Ireland as to the genuineness of the said petition and the propriety of assenting to the prayer thereof :

And it appears to the said Board to be proper to make this Provisional Order in respect to the matters aforesaid :

3. The compulsory powers of purchasing conferred by this Order shall be exercised within five years after the confirmation of this Order by Act of Parliament, and not afterwards:
